

constant: composite-likelihood components

Levels are comparable within a column only. $\chi^2/n = 1$ means the data sit inside their own counting noise.